GOVERNMENT DISMISSES
GREEK CHIEF OF STAFF

ATHENS, Oct. 13.—Gen. Doumanis, who resumed the office of chief of staff of the Greek army Tuesday, following his return from the war zone in Asia Minor, was peremptorily dismissed Wednesday and was placed on the retired list. The reason for his dismissal is said to have been displeasure by the government with an order of the day that he issued, in which he had considered subversive to discipline.

SOUTH AFRICAN
FARMERS UNITE

Co-operative Movement Steadily Gaining Among Agriculturists in the Union—Tobacco Growers Interested

LONDON, Oct. 14.—Reuter's correspondent at Cape Town cables that the co-operative movement is steadily gaining among the farmers of the Union of South Africa. The necessity of concerted action regarding export trade is widely urged. Growers of maize are already much interested in the movement and the tobacco growers have been encouraged in the direction of co-operation by the speech at Pretoria of Hon. H. Burton, treasurer of the Union of South Africa, who advocated catering to the export market by skilled handling of produce. The latest scheme for the protection of the South African farming interests was outlined by General Hertzog, leader of the Nationalist opposition. At the Orange Free State Congress he recommended that the farmers run their own banks and thereby be independent of the "foreign capital, where with a majority of the banks of the world are worked."

RAILWAY CRISIS RENDERED ACUTE

Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers Request a Conference With Railroad Executives at Chicago

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—Warren S. Stone, Grand Chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, today requested a conference with the railroad executives in session here, on behalf of the six big railroad unions, which have voted to strike.

Officers of sixteen railroad unions went into session shortly before noon at one hotel, while more than 100 railroad presidents are meeting at another. The railroad presidents notified Mr. Stone by telephone that his letter would be considered at their meeting.

To Ask Further Reduction When the road executives met at 11 o'clock it was understood they would vote to ask the United States railroad labor board for further wage reductions, promising to pass all future cuts along to the public in lower freight and passenger rates.

The railroad crisis was rendered more acute this morning when the labor board handed down a decision providing for the restoration of piece work. The railroad presidents were jubilant while union leaders feared the effect on their men, more than eighty per cent of whom have already voted to strike rather than accept further wage reductions or rules which they oppose.

DR. CHAMBERS KEPT ALIVE BY LAKE WATER

FORT WILLIAM, Oct. 14.—The four Fort William druggists, J. B. Hardy, W. J. Wood, F. Spence and A. S. Griffiths, claim to have been the first to discover Dr. Graham Chambers at 2 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, leaning against an improvised ledge made of one log leaning against another. He had become so weak that he had to crawl on hands and knees to the lake front where he kept himself alive by sucking water through a reed, as he lay on his side by the water's edge. He had a partridge which he had shot but had not been able to bring himself to eat it raw. The search for Dr. Chambers is estimated to have cost about $2,000 and 45 persons were engaged in it from first to last.

The special train to Fort Frances, consisting of engine and cabooses, cost $375.

JUDGMENT AFFECTS LOCAL SYNDICATE

Court of Appeal Alters Finding of Trial Judge in Case Concerning Nechaco River Tract of Land

VANCOUVER, Oct. 14.—Considered judgments were today handed down by the Court of Appeal in the following cases, the first two of which were tried in Victoria:

Greenisen vs. Twigg, appeal allowed in part, the court reducing the amount paid by the defendants by $25 an acre.

Lowen vs. Duncan, appeal dismissed. Mr. Justice Martin dissenting. The action of Greenisen vs. Twigg was tried in Victoria in May last before Mr. Justice Clement, and arose out of the sale of lands in Northern British Columbia in 1912. The plaintiff, Mr. Isaac Greenisen, a lawyer, of Petrolia, Ontario, owned a section of the Nechaco River, of 59 acres. He gave an option on this land at $50 per acre to the late Captain Hector McGregor, the well-known local surveyor, in September, 1912, who approached Messrs. H. D. Twigg, W. A. Landry and G. A. Holland and other parties, and a syndicate was formed to purchase the land at $75 per acre, being about $44,000 total purchase price. It was then alleged that Mr. McGregor had not disclosed that his firm was obtaining a commission of $25 per acre in the transaction.

Lands Conveyed

The plaintiff, Mr. Greenisen, on the instructions of the syndicate, conveyed the land in October, 1912, to Mr. Twigg, and some time later the first payment of $11,000 was made by the syndicate. Subsequently they incorporated this into a company under the name Nechaco Estates, Limited, and Mr. Twigg thereupon conveyed the land to the company. A mortgage was given to the plaintiff for the unpaid purchase money, some $23,000, and during 1912-1914 several payments were made to the plaintiff on account of the transaction. The land was meantime subdivided into a townsite and the Grand Trunk Pacific took some 50 acres for railway yards and named the townsite Prince George, and agreed to place a station. The lots were never offered to the public.

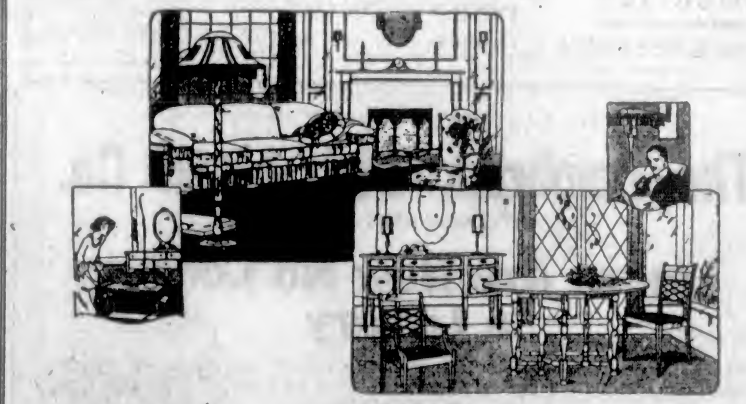

In 1920 Mr. Greenisen brought this action, claiming some $19,000 balance still owing him from Messrs. Twigg, Landry and the estate of Captain McGregor, who had been killed in France in 1915. The defendants set up that there was a duty on the

PREPARE FOR HIGH SCHOOL SHAKE-UP

Determined to Get Best Teachers Available, Board Decides to Advertise Widely—Number Required Not Revealed

The School Board, at a special session yesterday afternoon, completed arrangements to advertise for new teachers to be appointed to the Victoria High School personnel next January.

This action was interpreted as the long-deferred "second step" in the sweeping High School reorganization promised by members of the Board last summer when the controversy started by the "Committee of Twenty-Nine" was at its height.

The number of teachers to be appointed to the High School is left open. Efforts will be made to pick the most capable teachers in Canada, and to that end advertisements will be inserted, not only in Victoria newspapers, but in Toronto, Winnipeg and Vancouver papers.

Applicants will be asked in the advertisements to send full particulars regarding their qualifications. They must be university graduates, and possession of normal school certificates is also essential.

The acquisition of new teachers to fill vacancies that may arise in the course of a shake-up in the High School staff has been the subject of several conferences between Municipal Inspector George H. Deane and Mr. H. H. Smith, the new principal, appointed last month to succeed Dr. Alexander Robinson. The recommendation submitted to the Board yesterday by Mr. Deane and favorably acted upon were the result of these conferences.

Mr. Deane suggested that when applications are received, confidential reports should be asked from the inspectors under which the applicant served, so that the Board might have an accurate and impartial reference. This will be done.

"CANADA'S" TRIBUTE TO LOCAL MEMORIAL

London, England, Weekly Refers to Empire Avenue Opened by Victoria Chamber of Commerce

It should interest all residents of Victoria to know that in a recent issue of "Canada," the well-known illustrated weekly journal, the office of which are at 110 St. Martin's Lane, London, England, there was a very nice appreciation of Victoria's war memorial idea, which is reprinted herewith in full:

Victoria's War Memorial

The form of a war memorial is always a difficult question to settle. The idea of getting something of a permanent and useful nature to the community seems to be the wisest course to adopt.

Victoria, the capital of British Columbia, seems to have solved this difficulty in an eminently sensible, satisfactory and permanent way.

The Victoria Chamber of Commerce has inaugurated and is carrying out what will be known as "Empire Avenue" in its entirety. It will involve a permanently paved roadway of several miles in length, with boulevards on each side, which will be planted with trees, each tree having a tablet to the memory of one of British Columbia's soldiers who fell for the Empire during the war. The paving has now been finished, and the planting of trees along the boulevards has commenced.

This memorial is the first of the kind that has been put in operation, and the people of Victoria should be complimented on adding such a permanent beauty spot to their city and district, which is already recognized as one of the most attractive in the world.

Annual exports of black tea from Ceylon are worth nearly $20,000,000.

BAN CIGARETTES AT HIGH SCHOOL NOW

A ban on cigarette smoking by pupils of the High School has been declared by Mr. H. H. Smith, the new principal, and this week the ban was clamped down tight. Students found smoking will be subject to suspension from now on.

Municipal Inspector George H. Deane informed the trustees yesterday afternoon that Mr. Smith had ordered the suspension of two boys for one week because they had been found smoking cigarettes. Mr. Deane asked that the order be confirmed. This was done without comment.

Members of the Board regarded the suspension order as an indication that discipline will be more rigidly enforced at the High School under Mr. Smith. As lack of discipline was one of the principal reasons given for the "breakdown" at the High School last term, trustees are commending the new principal's action.

BRIDGE ABUTMENT HAS BEEN COMPLETED

City Engineer Preston Reports on Progress of Construction—First Steel Shipment on Its Way

The east abutment of the Johnson Street Bridge is now reported, City Engineer F. M. Preston to the City Council yesterday afternoon. Concrete has been laid to the desired depth, and no further work has to be done respecting that section of the structure until steel arrives.

Mr. Preston's progress report to the committee was as follows:

"Both the counterweight trunnion and the main trunnion pier calculations have had their bases completed. The main trunnion pier is now ready to be put up. The counterweight trunnion pier was unwarranted last week, and the forms for the pier shafts are now being erected, and we shall commence pouring the concrete in them today or as soon as the necessary cement arrives. All being well, this pier will be completed within a week.

The caisson for the rest pier is now being sunk, and the west abutment has been completed up to the level of the bridge seats.

"Forms are now being erected for the dirt wall, and this abutment will also be completed next week.

"The first shipment of steel is now on its way, consisting of the grillages and bridge seats for the pier tops. The car load being made up with some of the bridge floor material.

"If acceptable to the committee, the work done to the present time was $125,000, and the actual expenditure is $130,000; no allowance on either side being made for equipment."

Mr. Preston reported in favor of rounding off the intersection of Front and Wilson Streets, Victoria West, as urged by the Victoria West Brotherhood, if acceptable to the owner of the property involved, the city will pay $100 for the strip, this sum to cover the cost of fence alterations.

GOVERNMENT SOLID IN TWO KOOTENAYS

In East and West Ridings the Nominees of Government Party Certain of Victory, Says Senator R. F. Green

Confidence that the Government forces will carry the Kootenay seats in the present Federal campaign, was expressed by Senator R. F. Green, who returned yesterday from a trip to the interior, where he attended the nominating conventions of the National Liberal and Conservative Party for East and West Kootenay ridings.

In Dr. W. O. Rose, present Conservative member in the Provincial Legislature for the City of Nelson, the West Kootenay supporters of the Government have selected a sure winner, in Mr. Green's opinion. Dr. Rose at first refused the nomination, for business reasons, but in view of the unanimous demand of the convention that he should allow his name to go forward, he consented and received the enthusiastic support of the gathering. Even the Liberals in that riding concede that Dr. Rose will carry the seat, Mr. Green said. Dr. Hamilton, of Revelstoke, has been the Liberal nominee, a man who is popular in his home town, but who, the Senator says, is practically unknown in the other portions of the riding.

Dr. Bonnell is another Government supporter who will deliver the goods, in Mr. Green's opinion. He was member for the riding in the last Parliament, and his nomination at the convention held at Invermere was an enthusiastic one, delegations from all sections being present, notably from Fernie and Cranbrook. So far, the Liberals of that riding have brought out no candidates, and appear to be having difficulty in finding one who can be counted on to make a decent showing.

In view of the fact that Dr. Rose has entered the Federal field, the electors of the Nelson Provincial riding are already preparing for a Provincial by-election fight which, it is felt, the Provincial Government will bring on the constituency before the end of the year, using the Ymir-Nelson road work as an election card. Work has already started on that project. It was reported in Nelson that the Liberal candidate at the by-election will be Mr. Kenneth Campbell, a popular resident of the town, but Nelson has been a Conservative stronghold for years, and it is Mr. Green's belief that there are two or three Conservatives there, any one of whom can carry the seat.

LIBERALS AT ODDS IN THE NANAIMO RIDING

Mr. A. D. Macfarlane Withdraws Name From Those Seeking Nomination at Today's Convention at Duncan

Through what they describe as "political manipulation," Liberals at this end of the Nanaimo federal riding have decided to put forward no candidate at today's nominating convention of the Liberal Party, to be held at Duncan, at which a standard-bearer in the coming Federal contest will be named.

"My name will not go before the convention," declared Mr. A. D. Macfarlane, president of the Nanaimo Liberal Association, who, until a few days ago, was right out for the nomination and was being heavily backed by the party followers in the southern portion of the riding.

Beyond that pronouncement Mr. Macfarlane resolutely refused to make any statement, but other Liberal supporters were not so backward, and stated that they are anything but pleased at the interjection into the party affairs of political methods of which they disapprove. Hence it is, we should say, authoritative sources yesterday, that there will be no candidate for nomination entered at today's convention from this end of the riding.

The only name, therefore, according to Mr. Macfarlane, that would appear certain of being placed in nomination at today's convention at Duncan is that of Mr. Thomas Booth, editor of The Nanaimo Free Press, the local Liberal publication at that point. Developments are under way. It is further stated, in some Liberal quarters, which may result in Mr. William Marchant of Victoria, who was recently nominated by Liberals of Parksville, to be the party standard-bearer in that riding, withdrawing from the fight.

It is recognized that Rev. Thomas Menzies, People's Party member for that riding in the Provincial House, would make a strong candidate, and a move is on foot, political gossip has it, to secure the retirement of Mr. Marchant and the bringing out of Mr. Menzies as the joint candidate of the Liberal and Independent forces in the riding. The name of Mr. Armistead, an Independent of the Sayward district, has been mentioned in connection with a nomination by the Independent forces in that section, and it is stated to be the hope of those who seek the fusion of the Liberal and Independent element, to have Mr. Armistead's followers also line up against the Government candidate. Mr. H. S. Clements, whose nomination took place recently at a large and representative convention of Neishan supporters at Parksville.

At today's Liberal convention at Duncan, North Saanich delegates will be Mr. Chris Moore, president of the North Saanich Liberal Association; Mr. A. Munro, of Deep Cove, and Messrs. W. H. Dawes and P. N. Tester, of Sidney.

The hymns, "Lead, Kindly Light" and "Rock of Ages" were sung, and Mr. Dimmick read the 34th Chapter of John, taking as his text the 8th verse, "Lord, Show Us the Father, and It Sufficeth Us." Mr. Lewis Hall officiated at the organ and played a funeral march as the remains left the house. The pallbearers were Messrs. H. Hewlett, S. O'Neil, T. Temple, A. Wright, R. J. Young and A. McDonald. Mr. R. Connell read the committal service at the graveside. A profusion of flowers expressed the sympathy of the many friends.

KINSEY—The funeral of Baby Kinsey, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Kinsey, took place from the P. C. Funeral Chapel privately yesterday morning, where service was conducted by Rev. Dr. Clay. The remains of the little one were laid to rest in Ross Bay Cemetery.

POOLE—The funeral of the late Walter Poole took place from the late residence, 420 St. Charles Street, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, proceeding to St. John's Church, where service was conducted by Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick. There was a large attendance of family friends and many beautiful floral tributes covered the casket. Among those present were Mr. J. Dupen, of Seattle, and Mr. Leslie Dupen, of California. At the church the 96th Psalm was rendered, as were also the hymns "Rock of Ages" and "On the Resurrection Morn'g," led by the choir. At the conclusion of the service the cortege proceeded by way to Ross Bay Cemetery, where interment took place. The following acted as pallbearers: Messrs. G. Halliday, J. Young, R. Anderson, T. R. Purdy, T. M. Relfe and T. Watson.

Fred Miller, in the County Court, yesterday claiming $1,000 damages for fraud. His Honor Judge Lampman reserved judgment after listening to the evidence.

Witnesses for the plaintiff testified that the land was advertised by the defendant as being of thirty acres in area. They agreed that the contour of the tract was deceptive, a small inlet of the sea running into it, so that it was easy for even experienced men to believe that it actually was thirty acres. The plaintiff said that the land would have been a bargain if there had been thirty acres, as represented; but $7,500 was too much to pay for the real acreage of 14.55.

The defendant said that he bought the land through the Soldiers' Settlement Board; and that when he bought it it was represented to him as being thirty acres. He admitted that he had been afterwards informed by the S.S.B. that there was only 14.55 acres; but he maintained that he honestly believed there was thirty acres when he sold to the plaintiff.

Mr. C. W. Bradshaw appeared for the plaintiff; and Mr. James Brandon for the defendant.

INDUCT NEW PASTOR OF FIRST CHURCH

Rev. W. G. Wilson Welcomed by Representatives of Presbytery—Minister and Congregation Addressed

A big congregation was present at the First Presbyterian Church last evening on the occasion of the induction of Rev. W. G. Wilson, late of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Moose Jaw, Rev. W. L. Macrae, interim moderator for the congregation, presided, and there were with him on the platform the following members of the Victoria Presbytery: Rev. Dr. J. Campbell, Rev. Dr. Maclean, of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Victoria West; Rev. Thos. McConnell, of St. Columba Church, Oak Bay; Rev. Daniel Walker, of the Gorge Presbyterian Church; Rev. Jos. McCoy, Knox Presbyterian Church; Rev. Dr. Clay and Rev. A. C. Smith, pastor and assistant pastor respectively of St. Andrew's Church.

Scriptural readings were given and an anthem sung by the choir before Rev. Thos. McConnell delivered his sermon, choosing as his text I Peter, chapter 1, verse 11: "Whom having not seen He loved." "You do not read of people loving Abraham Lincoln today. There are many men representing the country who do not love him. Any religion which ignores the cross, any religion which has no cross, can never have love enough in the breast of its disciples to love the man who saved the world," the preacher, in illustration of his argument that Christ was an ever-living presence. The secret of a happy Christianity was to be found in the knowledge of an Omnipresent Personality. One who protected and encouraged. For his part the Christian must put Christ first in all things.

History of "Call."—Rev. Mr. Macrae related the history of the sending of the "call" to Rev. W. G. Wilson. Rev. Mr. Inkster had left them last March. The congregation met on April 4 to appoint a settlement committee, whose duty it was to bring in the names of candidates. A number of excellent men were heard in the pulpit of First Church between that time and July 14, the date on which the committee met and decided to recommend Rev. W. G. Wilson, of Moose Jaw, who had neither been seen nor heard by the congregation. On August 7 another congregational meeting had been called, at which the settlement committee had given their report, with recommendation, and this was unanimously accepted. On August 15 the call was presented and sustained at a special meeting of the Victoria Presbytery, and forwarded to the Presbytery at Moose Jaw, and, despite the obvious reluctance of his congregation there to part with him, Mr. Wilson had accepted the invitation of the Victoria church.

Following the recital of these facts, Mr. Macrae called Mr. Wilson forward and put to him the usual questions of doctrine. These being responded to satisfactorily, the induction was carried through, members of the Presbytery simultaneously advancing to greet the new pastor of First Church.

Speaks to Minister.—Rev. Dr. Clay addressed the new minister, whose many personal qualifications and well-known ministerial ability made reference to these things almost superfluous, stated the speaker. Dr. Clay just briefly touched upon the fact of Mr. Wilson's successful pastorate at Moose Jaw.

"There is a tendency in the spirit of the world today to scorn, ignore and (worst of all) patronize the Christian ministry," to regard the Gospel of Jesus Christ as a sweet and gentle fable suitable to the nursery and the sick-room; and the Church as the survival of an age which has long passed away," said Dr. Clay. Even among the ministry there were some who had fallen victim to that poisonous doctrine, who had not shown themselves possessed of enough moral and spiritual health to make them immune to its influence. Was it not somewhat significant that contemporaneously with that spirit there should be found in the world unrest, disquiet, uneasiness, despair? Was it not more than a mere coincidence? Was it not possible that the unrest of the world was the outcome of the world's irreligion? The unrest could never be cured until irreligion was swept away, thought the speaker. And the Church must be responsible for doing this work, not by adapting its methods to suit the demands of popular appeal, but by moving at the promptings of Divine teaching. And the spirituality of the Church was not likely to be any higher than the spirituality of the ministry of the church, said Dr. Clay, in conclusion, just before announcing his welcome to the new pastor of First Church.

nouncing his welcome to the new pastor of First Church.

Address Congregation.—Rev. Dr. Macrae addressed the congregation, pointing out wherein lay their obligations to their pastor. First Church had a big and well-organized congregation, and they were well equipped for work. Let them remember the provision of a salary was but a small part of what they owed their minister. Their duty would not be done when they had gone to church and listened to his sermons. They must give him a practical following, due respect and obedience to his admonitions for their spiritual welfare. If he must give an account of his preaching, then they for their part must give an account of their hearing. Love and esteem were also his due, also diligent co-operation, incessant prayer.

"The church has become largely a valley of dry bones," claimed this speaker, who found in the complex social life of the modern church some hindrance to the development of the spiritual or contemplative exercises.

The ceremony in connection with the induction concluded when Mr. Walter Walker, chairman of the settlement committee and senior elder of the church, presented Dr. Macrae, the interim moderator, with an address and cheque in token of appreciation of the services he had rendered the congregation in the absence of a pastor. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Dr. N. Maclellan, field secretary of social service work in the Presbyterian Church. Rev. Dr. Campbell and Rev. Joseph McCoy, respectively, delivered the opening prayer and gave the Scripture reading at the commencement of the service.

Many of the congregation went forward after the service and shook hands with Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, who are to be welcomed by the congregation in more elaborate fashion at a reception to be given in their honor on Monday evening.

URGES GOVERNMENT TO OFFER REWARD

LONDON, Oct. 14.—Sir William B. Thomas, war correspondent of The Daily Mirror, is telegraphing to that paper after a tour of the battlefields in France and Flanders, says that on the official announcement of the withdrawal of the British army from France the policy of searching for lost graves and bodies is definitely abandoned.

The correspondent says that many thousands of bodies still lie undiscovered and he urges the authorities to follow the example of France and Belgium and offer a small reward for each body found to groups of workmen who are engaged on the work of reconstruction and in clearing buildings, fields and woods.

LONDON NEWSPAPERS MAKING NO PROFIT

LONDON, Oct. 14.—Addressing a meeting convening at the Mansion House to consider means of dealing with the unemployment situation, Lord Burnham said that not a single newspaper in London was making a profit, and that certainly no paper mill was making a profit. Lord Burnham was arguing that employers are not making a reduction in workmen's wages unjustly.

DELIGHTFUL DANCE GIVEN BY KIWANIS

Members of Club Were Agreeable Hosts Last Night at the Empress Hotel—Function Attended by Five Hundred

Outstanding success crowned the efforts of the members of the Kiwanis Club in the dance which they held last night at the Empress Hotel in honor of the visiting delegates from seventeen other clubs in Washington, Oregon and throughout this Province. The guests who were present last night numbered about five hundred, and the ap- plause which greeted the dancers readily manifested the pleasure and enjoyment which the delegates gave to the assembly. Flagg was used extensively in the decorative scheme of the ball- room, while two large standards, the Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes were suspended at the end of the hall, behind the raised platform whence the music was dispensed. The decorations had been carried out by the local com- mittee, of which Mr. W. Maynard is chairman.

Among the assemblage were Mr. Fred Parker, International Secretary of the Kiwanis Club, of Chicago, and Mr. E. W. Arras, International Trustee, from Colum- bus, Ohio. During the evening a buffet supper was served in the dining-room. Great credit is due to Mr. Walter Walker, secretary of the local club, for the ex- cellence of the evening's entertainment and the ultimate success of the dance. Both the palmroom and the ballroom were employed last night and the af- fair was quite one of the most deligh- tful dances of the Autumn season.

ARTS AND CRAFTS TO HAVE ANNUAL EXHIBIT

Collection Will Be Thrown Open for Public Inspection on Tuesday, "Remain Open All Week"

A special committee of the Island Arts and Crafts Club was busy the whole of yesterday arranging the pictures and handicrafts which constitute the exhibition which is to be opened at Belmont House on Tuesday afternoon. There is a singularly good display this year, 153 water colors and 55 oils, black and white, etchings, etc. The collection of handicrafts is particularly interest- ing, the pewters, painted china and basketry making up unusually big ex- hibits. Statuary, wools, painted tape- try, plaster work, finger lamp, and other set made by a blind returned sol- dier, and many other interesting ar- ticles will attract the attention of the visitor. The exhibition will be open all next week, with the exception of Mon- day, and tea will be served every day at the rooms under the conservatory of Mrs. Hodgins. Miss Kate Hemming is arranging musical programmes for the evening.

WILL SUPPLY MILK DURING LUNCH HOURS

A largely attended meeting of the Paquimal Parent-Teachers' Association was held yesterday afternoon in the Lamson Street School, with the pres- ent Mrs. Mary in the chair. The meet- ing was opened by the singing of "O Canada."

Dr. J. B. McCallum and Miss Morri- son, the district health officer and nurse respectively, addressed the as- sembly, urging that milk be sold in the school at lunch hours. The association decided to have a supply of milk avail- able at that time, commencing on Octo- ber 16. They consented to pay the initial expense of the move, but will later sell the milk to the children.

A committee of three members, Mrs. Janet Palmer, Mrs. Mary and Miss Morrison, was appointed to make arrangements with Dr. Purvis to speak to the next meeting, on Octo- ber 24, when the dental clinic matter will be brought before the Paquimal School Trustees.

Miss Morrison was highly compli- mented upon her splendid work in her nursing capacity to the children, es- pecially in the teeth and throat branch.

Backache

Backache is the outstanding symptom of kidney disease. Women often make the mistake of attributing other causes than over-look the derangement of the kid-neys until serious developments have made it difficult to obtain permanent relief.

This letter points to a treatment which has been so thoroughly tried and proven to be effective in the great majority of cases that you cannot afford to overlook it when cause arises for its use.

Mrs. Albert Brunet, R.R. No. 1, Ottawa, Ont., writes:

"I have used Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for the past two months, having been afflicted with kidney trouble. I used two doctors' medicine previous to this, without any good results. A friend told me to use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and the second box made me feel a good deal better. I have now used about six or eight boxes, and am com- pletely relieved."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25c a box, all dealers, or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

NOTES FROM DUNCAN

DUNCAN, Oct. 14.—It is regretted by the promoters that the dance given last evening by the ladies' com- mittee of the First Cowichan Girl Guides was not better patronized.

The dance was given to raise funds to secure quarters for the Guides, but there will be no "proceeds," as after paying expenses there will be a small deficit. Those who attended had a most enjoyable time. Mrs. Martin's orchestra supplied the music. A dainty supper was served, this be- ing in charge of Mrs. E. Stock, with able helpers. Mrs. Morten, acting president of the committee, together with the members of the committee worked hard to make the dance a success.

Miss Rachel Wilson has returned home after undergoing an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. L. Huntington and Mr. W. L. H. Young returned last evening from Qualicum.

The music will be of the best, and the Empress service is in itself a guarantee to intending patrons, and a good evening's entertainment is assured the public.

MINISTERING CIRCLE

Of King's Daughters Met Yesterday and Arranged Programme for Winter Months

The meeting of the Ministering Circle, King's Daughters, was held yesterday afternoon in the Hibben-Bone Building, with Mrs. H. A. S. Morley presiding, and plans were made for the work for the coming winter. The circle has decided to take up the work of preparing maternity bags. Two cases of distress were reported and money voted to assist these families, and also the circle's quota to the societies' work in Duncan.

PREACHES AT ST. PAUL'S

Pulpit of Victoria West Presbyterian Church Occupied Tomorrow by Rev. D. N. McLachlan

The Rev. D. N. McLachlan, B.D., field secretary of the Board of Social Service and Angelism of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, will occupy the pulpit of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Victoria West, tomorrow evening at 7:30. Mr. McLachlan was the nominee of the Presbytery of Victoria at its recent meeting, for the very important position of educational secretary, that is secretary of the department of literature and missionary education. This is a new appointment resolved upon by the General Assembly last June. The work of the department is to co-operate with the boards of the Church and to co-ordinate their activities in the production of literature, giving information on the Church's work, and in the promotion of publicity, and of missionary education.

Such a young man, Mr. McLachlan is considered by those who know him, to be in every way qualified for this responsible position. His friends have no assurance, however, that he would accept the position. They know he never sought it.

Representing the board of evangelism of the Presbyterian Church, it is expected that Mr. McLachlan will at this time announce the board's programme for special evangelistic work in this Presbytery, during the Winter months.

BAKERS CONDEMN CITY BREAD BY-LAW

Urge Retail Committee of Chamber of Commerce to Ask Revision or Seek Legislation for Standard Loaf

Representatives of Victoria's smaller baking establishments appeared before the executive of the retailers' committee of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon and asserted that Provincial legislation fixing a standard weight for loaves of bread to be offered for sale in British Columbia, or sweeping revision of the city's by-laws governing the sale of bread, should be urged at once in order to insure equitable treatment of the bakery business here.

The committee will not take action until the bakers submit a written statement on their position.

Mr. A. E. G. Cornwell, speaking for the bakers, declared that the present city ordinance relating to bread manufacture and sales were detrimental to the industry, discriminatory and ridiculous.

Mr. Herbert Kent, a member of the retailers' committee, stated that the Medical Health Officer A. G. Price intended to effect a revision of present by-laws. In this revision it will probably be asked that a practical baker be consulted for advice and assistance.

The regulation compelling the stamping of all loaves with their weight was condemned. Mr. Cornwell holding that 55 per cent of the women of Victoria would welcome the abolition of this practice. It was argued that a standard-weight loaf would be an improvement on the present system, which stipulated no specific weight for loaves, but which merely demanded that the weight of the loaf be stamped on the bread.

It was pointed out that loaves sold here weighed, on an average, two ounces more than loaves offered for sale in Vancouver, because the Mainland ordinance stipulated that loaves should weigh a certain amount before baking, and in the process at least two ounces were lost through shrinkage.

ALDERMAN TO PROBE SEATTLE CAR SERVICE

Ald. Dinsdale, Seeking First-Hand Information on One-Man Car, Leaves on Mission to Puget Sound

Determined to secure first-hand information regarding the operation of the one-man street car, Ald. Robert Dinsdale left for Seattle yesterday afternoon to carry out a personal investigation of that city's municipal traction service.

"I realized from the start it was the only thing to do," said Ald. Dinsdale before he left. "We have heard one thing from the company and an entirely different story from the employees. One-man cars have been in operation in Seattle long enough for officials of the department, operators and the general public to have a pretty good idea as to the kind of service they give. I intend to find out what Seattle thinks of the one-man car. If Seattle thinks it is all right, that should be good enough for us. If Seattle thinks otherwise, we should have good reason to oppose the B. C. Electric proposals or insist on substantial concessions in return."

While in Seattle, the alderman stated, he will inspect the municipal market and gather data on its methods of operation and maintenance. Ald. Dinsdale is chairman of the Municipal Committee of the City Council. His idea is to make the public market of maximum service to the city.

Ald. Dinsdale was sponsor for a resolution to apply for cancellation of the city's agreement with the company if the one-man car system was enforced here. The resolution, however, was withdrawn at the last meeting and has never discussed by the Council. The Mayor and aldermen are withholding action until the situation has become clarified, and it is expected that Ald. Dinsdale's mission will be of assistance in arriving at a decision.

It is probable that the one-man car matter will be under discussion at the next meeting of the Council, and Ald. Dinsdale has intimated that by that time he will be prepared to move a resolution. The nature of the resolution will depend on what the alderman finds out in Seattle.

CONVICTIONS MUST STAND

Judge Rules That Affidavits Before Notary Public Have No Weight in Criminal Procedure

By a judgment delivered this week in Vancouver, Mr. Justice Gregory has confirmed the convictions of Lai Cox et al. four Chinamen of Prince George, who were each fined the sum of $250, last April, for being keepers of a common gaming house in that city.

The Chinamen were tried and convicted by Magistrate Davidson, of Prince George. They appealed to the County Court there, and the appeals were dismissed. Certiorari proceedings were then begun in Victoria before Mr. Justice Macdonald, in the Supreme Court; Mr. Frank Higgins, K.C., acting for the convicted men, and Mr. R. C. Lowe for Magistrate Davidson. The first applications were dismissed because of failure to comply with the Crown Office rules.

Further applications were then made for four separate writs, and the cases were argued here before Mr. Justice Gregory. A preliminary objection was made at the instance of the police magistrate that the affidavits in support of the applications were made before a notary public and a justice of the peace, and that such officers had no jurisdiction in matters of criminal procedure. Mr. Justice Gregory upheld the objection, with the result that the convictions stand.

Elizabeth Barrett Browning, English authoress, was secretly married in 1817.

KIWANIS HUNDREDS ARE HERE FOR CONVENTION

"Victoria, British Columbia's capital, welcomes the visiting Kiwanians with a full heart. She welcomes them because, through her association with Kiwanis, they express those cardinal virtues without which civilization is a mockery and a sham, and can make no real progress."

"As Kiwanians they practice the gospel of service above self; of advancement denoted not only by material achievement but, much more important, by the development of character."

"They are the energetic exponents of a principle which never can perish because it is entrenched in these immortal precepts which 2,000 years ago were handed down to a troubled world from the Mount of Olives. This principle is international; it recognizes no racial, economic, or social subdivisions. It is subservient to no designs of selfish expediency."

"The world is struggling in the wreckage of the recent conflict which engulfed it in barbarism. In a large part of it law and order are in the melting pot. Other parts are threatened with bankruptcy. There is a spirit of discontent and hopelessness abroad. It is not yet properly realized that an entirely new structure of civilization must be erected upon the place where the old one stood, that any effort to patch together the ruins will be as vain as the action of the man who builds his house upon the sand, and will be productive of nothing but suffering and loss for the next generation."

Influence of Kiwanis

"Kiwanis, which builds upon a foundation of amity and concord, regardless of national distinction and differences, which has no place in its composition for the selfishness and malice from which wars spring, must become an important factor in clearing the way for the establishment of the new order which must prevail before civilization can claim it has redeemed its soul."

"Its influence for good, commencing with the individual, and extending in logical processes to the community, the nation, and the world, must take its place with other uplifting agencies as a thing of great blessing to all mankind."

"Thus Victoria, with a clear insight into the soul of Kiwanis, is happy to welcome its members today for themselves. She welcomes them also on her own account for the fact that she can be proud, without being arrogant, of her many charms. She is proud, but not boastful, of her history and development, but above all, to have been chosen as the scene of so memorable a gathering as this, solely concerned with helping Kiwanis to build for a better order of things in those parts of the world in which, under the blessing of Providence, it flourishes."

"Alouette"

Vocal solos were sung by Mr. Ernest Butterworth, Kiwanian, Norton, of Port Angeles, and Kiwanian G. W. Grimston, of New Westminster. The representatives of the various clubs were seated together, and during the luncheon each section sang a chorus, the Victoria Club rendering "Alouette" with great enthusiasm under the conductorship of Kiwanian Harold Cross. There were a number of stunts put on, the best one being that of the Vancouver Club, whose Glee Club sang from the balcony of the hall a parody, "V-A-N-C-O-U-V-E-R, That's The Town," each member suddenly producing a card bearing one letter of Vancouver and holding it up so that the word was spelled out. With its final singing of the chorus a banner bearing the name of the song was unfurled from the balcony rail, and the Vancouver visitors rose to their feet in a final and enthusiastic rendition.

An attendance prize was won by Kiwanian Ram Bownell, of the New Westminster Club.

The luncheon concluded with the singing of "God Save the King" and "My Country, 'Tis of Thee."

From the hall the Kiwanians and ladies adjourned to the C. P. R. dock, where they greeted the contingent that came across on the Seattle steamer. About half an hour after this the convention opened in the Empress hotel ballroom.

Government Street was gay with flags to greet the visitors, and the windows of the stores bore welcome cards and decorations in Kiwanis colors.

PRESIDENT HARDING ATTENDS FUNERAL

WASHINGTON, Oct. 14.—Governmental affairs of the nation halted today while its leaders, headed by President Harding, attended funeral services for the late Senator Knox, of Pennsylvania, former Secretary of State and Attorney-General.

The services were held at 11 o'clock at St. John's Episcopal Church and were conducted by the Right Rev. Alfred Harding, Bishop of Washington.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough remedies, by using this well-known old recipe for making cough syrup at home. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for prompt results. It takes right hold of a cough and gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any drugstore, pour it into a 16-oz. bottle and add plain granulated sugar syrup and 16 drops of Pinex. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey or corn syrup instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its healing effect on the membranes.

Avoid dissimulation by asking your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded.

Their Regular Weekly Meeting—Examining Board Will Meet on Monday

A special meeting of the Victoria and District Football Association was held last night in the rooms of the Veterans of France, called in consequence of an objection raised by the Referees' Association to the appointment of a referee not a member of their association to handle one of today's league matches.

At last night's meeting it was unanimously decided that the scheduled games for today will be played without fail, and that the referees as appointed at Tuesday's meeting will officiate. The schedule for league matches today, therefore, reads as follows:

Wilson's vs. C.P.R., at Central Park. Referee, W. G. Brown.

It was also announced at yesterday's meeting that the local referees' examining board will hold a meeting in the rooms of the Veterans of France on Monday night, at 7:15, for the purpose of examining anyone wishing to qualify as a referee. All those wishing to take the examination are asked to send their names to the secretary of the V.D.F.A., at 360 Dundas Street, and to appear at the examining board's meeting on Monday night.

Line-ups announced for today's games are as follows:
Victoria, West—Shandley; Whyte and Copas; Thomas, Muir and Baker; Clarkson, Peden, T. Heyland, Allen and Sherratt.

GRAND CIRCUIT RACING

LEXINGTON, Oct. 14.—The forty-ninth annual meeting of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association closed today. The 2:05 trot and the 2:01 pace proved good closing contests, Jan The Great winning the trot after losing the first heat to Kilo Watta. Best time 2:04 1-4. Senardo captured the pace after finishing third in the second heat, won by Hal Mahone. Best time 2:01 1-4.

The final heat of the meeting was marred by a bad spill when Sir Roch Senator Wilkes went down while rounding the first turn. Charlie Dean, Jr., and Harry Gray were behind the two horses. Neither horse nor drivers sustained serious injuries.

Speculating had done little in annexing the 2:10 trot, while the 2-year-old trot went to Hillandale Farm's Sakura in straight heats. Best time 2:05 1-2.

Heading Out of Season

A beautiful cock pheasant entered the North Dairy School in Bannockburn rather unceremoniously yesterday and rudely interrupted the studies of the children. He came through a closed window with a crash. The bird was unhurt, and a rather exciting hunting expedition was immediately organized. Miss Petra Bekker, with the assistance of her corps of scholars, eventually captured the intruder, and he was ejected through the pane of glass he had broken, apparently none the worse for his wild adventure.

GET BACK TO WORK AFTER BALL SERIES

New Yorkers Find Business No Longer Interfering With Pleasure—Stars Make Post-Mortem Talks

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—New York went back to work today after partially forgetting business for more than a week because it interfered with interest in the world's series.

Everybody is agreed that one big reason the Yankees lost the title after starting out like whirlwinds, was the failure of their heavy hitters to hit heavily.

"Nobody can say we quit," Babe Ruth declared. "It is too bad we lost, but even in defeat we fought hard until the last man was out. The Giants got the breaks in the last two games. Luck was with them, but we gave them a real fight."

Arthur Nehf, who twirled the Giants to the world's championship in the final game, said the ninth inning was the most thrilling he had ever pitched. "I knew I had a victory and came when Ward walked and Baker stepped to the plate. I remembered that Baker beat Mathewson in a world's series by making a home run in the ninth inning. I pitched carefully to Baker, and when Rawlings stopped that bat it took a load off my mind."

Waite Hoyt, the defeated twirler, was almost heartbroken at his failure to win his third straight game over the Giants. "I gave the best I had," he said.

"The Turkey" series, as played off by the Meusel brothers—Emil, of the Giants, and Bob, of the Yankees—was won by Emil with a batting average of .345 to Bob's .200. Under the rules of the series proposed by Emil, Bob must furnish a Thanksgiving dinner for both families.

GRASS HOCKEY NOTES

New members continue to join the Victoria Grass Hockey Club. Last Saturday the nuclei of the scheduled side were drawn out. Messrs. Idema, Stander, Muncy and Wilson, with the Misses King, Eastman, Wright and Tolson, will skipper the reserve sides.

A scratch men's team played University Military School last Wednesday, and after a toughly contested hour's play, the boys came out ahead by the score of 2 to 1. The last goal being scored by Mayer, a minute and a half before time.

There will be full turnout today at the Jubilee Hospital ground, at 2:45 p.m.

UP-ISLAND SCHOOLS

ARIZONAN WILL GO TO SEATTLE

Todd Dry Docks Given Contract—Bidding Close and Settled at New York—Leaves on Sunday

Todd Dry Docks, Inc., of Seattle, were yesterday awarded the contract for the repairs to the American Hawaiian freighter Arizona, which struck a ledge off Lime Kiln Point, San Juan Island, on October 4, and has since been at Esquimalt undergoing survey.

Three tenders were submitted, as follows: Yarrow, Limited, Victoria, $55,000; twenty days; Victoria Machinery Depot, Victoria, $51,987, twenty days; and Todd Dry Docks, Seattle, $42,900, twenty-five days.

The bids of the local firms were in Canadian currency, and that of the Seattle concern in United States funds, so that there was no disparity between the tenders that would result from the actual figures. So early was the fact of the bidding that Captain L. Curtis, of Milbury & Curtis, of San Francisco, who was here to open the tenders for the steamship owners, wired the office, after the New York office of the line, leaving to them the final disposition of the contract. Word from headquarters, late yesterday afternoon, gave the job to the Seattle company.

Leaves Here Sunday

The Arizona will leave here in tow for the Puget Sound on Sunday at the latest. She will be docked at Seattle on Monday morning. The vessel will be put in shape for her trip across the Straits by Yarrow, Limited, for the Todd Company. Temporary patches will be affixed to the ship's hull where she was damaged by going ashore. Yarrow started work on this last night.

General regret will be felt here at the loss of this important job to local yards. Although the bids were wired to New York, the Victoria firms, on looking over the figures, had little doubt that they had lost, and, although naturally somewhat disappointed, took their lack of success without anything in the nature of ill-feelings.

The Right Spirits
"You know," said Mr. A. R. Hunt, assistant manager of the Todd company, representing them here yesterday, "we ship repair people are supposed to be a lot of slunks. But I have nothing but the highest praise for the sportsmanship of your Victoria companies. Mr. Norman Yarrow was the first to congratulate me when we left the office, after the tenders had been opened, and placed the facilities of his yard at the disposal of Todd's in any manner that would be required. That is what I call the right spirit."

"This is the first time that we have ever come over here after one of your jobs and carried it away," Yarrow has been crowned over and over more than once and have taken our work away. Now we are doing the same thing with them. No doubt they will be after us again in future. That's the way things go on all the time—first one wins and then the other."

Todd Dry Docks were the only American firm to bid on the work. Mr. Hunt explained this by saying that his firm was the only one in nearby United States ports with a drydock large enough to accommodate a ship of the size of the Arizona. Three drydocks are, in fact, controlled by the Seattle plant, on Puget Sound.

The Arizona has been here for ten days, eight of them in drydock. This has meant quite a sum of money to this city. "The mate alone," declared Captain Curtis, "has left $20 here!"

ALIEN HEAD TAX AT NEW YORK LOWERED

TORONTO, Oct. 13.—Officials of the Toronto office of the Robert. Reford Steamship Company received word today from the immigration department at Washington that the charge of $10 levied on aliens entering the United States had been reduced to $1. The change will be welcomed by many Canadians who have occasion to patronize steamships leaving and entering the ports of New York, Boston and Philadelphia. Canadian and English immigrants arriving in New York experienced much trouble and delay in the matter of having their passports endorsed. With the outbreak of the war the charge was increased from $1 to $10. Officials of the company stated that while the order did not apply to Canadians eastbound, they were obliged to pay the fee on westbound voyages.

Few Ships to West Indies
LONDON, Oct. 14.—Speaking at the annual meeting of the Colonial Bank, C. F. Wood, the president, complained of the lack of adequate shipping facilities to the West Indies. He considered that the present time, when abundant shipping was lying idle, was appropriate for reconsidering the question of a subsidized service.

INFORMATION WANTED AGAINST BUCKO MATE

VANCOUVER, Oct. 14.—The Sailors' Union is seeking information as to the whereabouts of a number of Vancouver sailors who left here last fall as members of the crew of the sailing ship Rolph on a voyage to Australia. Some of these men upon their return gave vivid reports of life under a "bucko" mate. Mr. H. W. Hutton, barrister, of San Francisco, is endeavoring to locate them, as he has undertaken prosecution of Fred Hansen, mate of the ship. Mr. Hutton wrote that he had the cases of three sailors off the Rolph, one of whom had lost the sight of one eye and part of that of the other; a second had lost an ear and his hearing, allegedly through mishandling at the hands of the mate.

The Vancouver crew sailed the ship to Melbourne and quit her. A new crew was taken on and stayed as far as Newcastle, where another crew was shipped for South America. Charges were laid against the mate before the United States consul upon the arrival of the vessel at Iquique, but the mate had left the vessel.

SEARCH FOR DRUGS REVEALED CHINAMEN

Fifteen Orientals Hidden Away in Ballast Tanks of British Ship—Smuggled for One Thousand Dollars Each

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Customs officials searched the British steamer Helenus today for smuggled drugs, but instead found fifteen half starved Chinese hidden in empty ballast tanks, several of them afflicted with beriberi. A report that another Chinese who had the disease had been taken aboard the ship in the harbor, started harbor police on a search for the body.

The fifteen were taken to Ellis Island, and after they had been questioned, Fong Yow, known on the ship as "No. 1 Chinaman" or Boss, was detained on charges that for $1,000 a head he had undertaken to smuggle the Chinese into the United States from a port in China.

GERMAN YARDS ARE BUSY ON VESSELS

Shipping Lines Striving to Regain Some Measure of Former Position—54 Ships Built Since January

Vigorous efforts by German shipbuilding companies to regain, at least in part, their former position on the world's seas are shown by a table received here giving the number of vessels launched this year in German yards.

From January 1 until the beginning of August, 54 boats, totalling approximately 290,000 tons, were built in Germany, according to the table; this means about one launched every fourth day. In June a new steamship was completed every third day, but the actual number may be even higher, as the yards give out figures more unwillingly. The average size of these ships is around 6,000 tons, but four of the largest, which are owned by the Hugo Stinnes Company, reach 12,000 tons. The Hamburg-American Line alone, according to the table, ordered one-fifth of the total number. Three vessels were built for foreign countries—Denmark, Holland and the free state of Danzig.

German shipbuilding circles since the war lay more stress on economical vessels than on impressive ones. Whereas formerly Germany took pride in turning out huge vessels, equipped with all luxuries, it is bent upon acquiring a fleet of small but highly modern ships that are less expensive in construction and operation. Hand in hand with the building of new ships is the hiring and purchasing of vessels from other countries, mainly Denmark. Germany is doing everything in her power to regain the number of vessels she was compelled to surrender to the Allies by the terms of the peace treaty. Her shipyards are also carrying out much repair work for foreign countries.

The latest bulletin issued by the Buns Canal Company contains some interesting details relating to the resumption of German navigation to the East by way of the canal. It was on October 23, 1920, that the first German steamer appeared at Suez, after none had been seen for 18 months. Since that date and down to the end of the month of June eleven German steamers, representing a total of 54,950 tons, have made the passage of the canal, either going to or coming from the East Indies. These vessels, whose average tonnage is considerably higher than the pre-war figure, belong to only two companies—the Hansa Line and the German-Australian Line.

HIGH DOCK FEES SEND SHIP AWAY

Victoria Ship Repair Firms Had No Chance to Get $50,000 Contract for Repairs to Arizona

Approximately $10,000 was lost by Victoria when the tenders for the repair of the American steamer Arizona were opened here yesterday. For ten days, badly damaged, the vessel has been at Esquimalt, with Canadian ship repair plants here on the spot ready to take up their tools and make her fit for sea. No Victoria firm, however, will carry out the work. Instead, the prize will be towed away to Seattle, there to be attended to by the Todd Dry Docks, Inc. With her goes a sum of something like $50,000 that should have stayed at this port for wages and materials.

That the job has been lost to Victoria is not due to lack of enthusiasm or enterprise on the part of local yards. The cause of that loss is the fact that the Dominion Government calls upon firms to pay for the use of the Esquimalt dock. These fees made it impossible for the local yards to secure the work. The Seattle firm that got the job has three drydocks of its own. Yards with their own docks can, if necessary, charge nothing for their use. Not so with the plants here, who were faced with the necessity of engaging the Government drydock at the full charge of $800 per day, and adding approximately $12,000 to their tenders to cover that expense. Had the dock fees been reduced, there is not the slightest doubt that Victoria workmen would have carried out the work. As it is, it goes to Seattle.

Canada Loses

"We were the highest of three tenders," said Mr. Norman Yarrow, head of Yarrow Ltd., last night. "The Victoria Machinery Depot put in lower figures than we did. But, like ourselves, they lost out. The great fact is that Canada lost out. That's the point. We should have got that job for Canada. That we failed to do so is simply and wholly due to the fact that the high dock fees made it impossible. I knew from the start that it would be practically impossible for us to get that job. It meant use of the drydock for eighteen or nineteen days, and an extra $12,000 or so on our tender."

"I made very strong representations to Ottawa for a reduction of the dock charges. I wired the Minister of Public Works, who has control of the dock, to the Minister of Labor, who is in charge of the employment side of the matter, and lastly, to the Premier. Hon. Dr. Toimie also sent a strong telegram to the Public Works Minister, pointing out the fact that the country was losing considerable employment here at a time when it was urgently needed. One and all of these wires had no effect."

No Fees at All Now
"The Government had an opportunity, by taking away those dock fees, to put money in circulation, to bring American money over to Canada, to help to rectify the rate of exchange and to bring about the return of normal conditions. The whole thing, reduced to bare facts, is this: The Government has the choice of the same small amount of money, or none at all. By reducing the dock fees they would have got something. Now they have nothing. They have lost the employment and they have lost the money as well."

"With a job of that magnitude the reduction of fees would have altered the tenders considerably. Our tenders considerably. The choice of the same small amount of money, or none at all. By reducing the dock fees they would have got something. Now they have nothing. They have lost the employment and they have lost the money as well."

What's at the Playhouses?

COLUMBIA What will a woman do THEATRE for beautiful clothes, limousines, butlers and breakfasts in bed? Lily Gibbs, fair, clever and shrewd daughter of the underworld, fled and cheated for the sake of such luxuries, but the fruits of her deceit turned bitter when conscience, which makes cowards of us all, was aroused for the first time. Lily Gibbs is the fascinating heroine of "What Women Will Do," the Edward Jones Production showing at the Columbia Theatre today, with Anna Q. Nilsson playing the part of the girl who is regenerated through love.

ROYAL "Wedding Bells," Constance Talmadge's latest photoplay, released as an Associated First National attraction, concludes its run at the Royal Victoria Theatre today. This attraction has won the most favorable comment of any of Constance Talmadge's previous releases shown at the Royal Victoria Theatre, possibly on account of the naturally splendid story upon which the film version was based, but more likely on account of the unique performance given by Constance Talmadge as the rather capricious and temperamental Rosalie Wayne. Harrison Ford, who supports Miss Talmadge as leading man in the role of Reginald Carter, is coming in for his share of the plaudits, and the consensus of opinion is that Mr. Ford has rarely been seen to better advantage than in this production. The picture is based on the hasty marriage of Rosalie and Reginald. After two days of wedded life, a most trifling incident causes Rosalie to become angered, and she runs away, fully expecting her heartbroken husband to follow. All would have been well had Reginald not been stricken with a most irritating case of measles and confined to his bed. To follow was impossible, so Rosalie goes to Europe to forget, and then to Reno to get a divorce. The separation is not lasting, however, when each discovers that the other should not be married to anyone else. The picture was directed by Chet Withey and Emily Chiecheater. Ida Darling, James Harrison, William Roselle, Polly Vann, Dallas Weir and Frank Honda are seen in the supporting cast. The musical part of the programme this week will be filled by Margaret and Jenny Strain, who will provide a musical novelty that will be sure to please. Since their first performance here last Monday they have received most favorable comment, and are quite an enjoyable addition to this week's programme.

VARIETY It is difficult to imagine a more perfect role than that of the mother in "The Greatest Love," and it is equally impossible to imagine any other actress who could interpret it as superbly as Vera Gordon does. As Mrs. Lantini, the devoted wife and big-hearted mother, she has even more opportunity to show her super-emotional ability than she had in "Humoresque," her first big success. But even an actress of such calibre as Miss Gordon has to be surrounded by a strong supporting cast if her work is to be most effective, and in this picture that has been amply supplied. Playing the role of the father is Bertram Marburgh, while Fannie Shelton and Hugh Hunter play the roles of son and daughter, and the irrepressible Bobby Connelly and Dot Williams have the children's roles. Little Island, the coverage of an ocean liner, the crowded East Side and the pretentious Riverside Drive were all used as locations for this picture. When you see it you practically take a personally conducted tour of the most interesting spots in New York. And you give your emotions an airing, too. It is being shown at the Variety Theatre for the last time today.

CAPITOL Gladys George, leading THEATRE woman for Thomas Meighan in "The Easy Road," his latest Paramount picture, which plays at the Capitol Theatre last time today, enjoys writing so much that she writes for her own amusement. Miss George has stacks of manuscripts written by herself, but she has never attempted to commercialize any of her good writing. The pleasure lies in the writing itself. Coincident with this is the fact that Miss George portrays, in the new picture, the role of a wealthy girl who falls in love with a novelist. "Now what could have suited me better than to fall in love with a novelist?" asks the pretty leading woman. In the supporting cast are Grace Goodall, Lila Lee, Arthur Carow, Lura Anson and Viroa Daniel.

DOMINION Undeniably one of the very fairest American actresses appearing in "Barbery Sheep" in 1917, she became extremely popular, owes her success to innate artistry and painstaking effort to please her audiences. In all of her pictures, she has sounded the clear note of artistic achievement, so that her admirers look for the best in her vehicles that art can supply, and in her latest photoplay, "Footlights," they will not be disappointed. Miss Ferguson has two roles of equal power in "Footlights." While she has appeared in photoplays which required her to portray two or more roles, it is quite certain that in none has she acquitted herself to finer advantage than in her latest picture. As a vaudeville actress in "Footlights," which vitally affects her career, she is intensely real. That her roles in this picture will greatly enhance her fame as a screen luminary, seems a foregone conclusion. "Footlights" is at the Dominion Theatre for the last showings today.

PICTURIZATION OF HOBART'S "EXPERIENCE" AT CAPITOL MONDAY

There are few better known plays than "Experience," by George V. Hobart, which was presented in New York in 1914. In George Fitzmaurice's Paramount picturization of this stage success, the story was enlarged and put into scenario form by Waldemar Young. The picture will be shown at the Capitol Theatre next week, with a special programme.

As the screen affords greater possibilities for detail in stories than the stage, those who have seen the play will have the added interest of seeing just how the scenario has been handled. One feature which was added, much to its value, is the character of "Gloom," which does not appear in the original play. The part is the antithesis of "Intoxication." Mr. Fitzmaurice and Mr. Young decided that "Gloom" would add a modern touch to the allegorical play that was written before the anti-liquor law went into effect.

TWENTY NUMBERS FOR BENEFIT BALL

Very Latest and Best in Dance Music Being Furnished by Musicians' Union for Wednesday Night

A programme of twenty numbers has been arranged for the hospital benefit ball which is to be given at the Empress Hotel on Wednesday, October 19. This should give patrons of the affair about all the entertainment they can crowd into the five hours between the opening of the dance at 9 o'clock and the close of the ball at 2 o'clock. With the generous help which the Musicians' Union of the city is giving by furnishing in the neighborhood of one hundred numbers without fee for the occasion, the music should be of unique quality, and it is fully anticipated that the affair in this respect will be something that has never been staged before in the history of dancing in Victoria.

The following is the programme in detail, the numbers to occur at fifteen-minute intervals:

1. Fox trot, "Sunny Tennessee."
2. Waltz, "Your Daddy's Arms."
3. Fox trot, "Jabberwocky." "Fandango."
4. One-step, "You." "Always."
5. Waltz, "Carriente." "O Sole Mio."
6. Fox trot, "Cherie." "Mon Homme."
7. Schottische, "Fucker Up and Whistle."
8. Waltz, "Haunting Waltz." "Little Crumbs of Happiness."
9. Fox trot, "Ho." "Humming."
10. One-step, "Pack Me Up in Your Heart." "Chico."
11. Waltz, "Thoughts." "Peggy O'Neill."
12. Fox trot, "Jicky." "Stolen Kisses."
13. Schottische, "Listenin'."
14. Waltz, "Blue Danube."
15. Fox trot, "Cho Cho San." "Ain't We Got Fun?"
16. One-step, "I'll Keep On Loving You." "Arabia."
17. Waltz, "Tut a Voo." "Why, Dear?"

CHORAL SOCIETY HAS PROGRAMME PLANNED

Arrangements Made for Busy Winter; Practice to Be Held at Fletcher's on Tuesday Evening

The Victoria Choral Society, which has been active in the rendering of many successful and well-appreciated concerts during the past ten years, has completed arrangements for another season's work this coming winter.

Last Tuesday evening, at a well-attended initial meeting, the following officers were elected: President, Mr. J. O. Welch; librarian, Mr. J. H. Williamson; treasurer, Mrs. W. H. Radbourne; secretary, Mrs. J. O. Welch; conductor, Mr. J. W. Becker; pianist, Dr. Isabel Collier.

The next practice will be held in Messrs. Fletcher Bros.' Music Hall on the evening of Tuesday, the 18th inst., when it is to be expected that as many former members of the chorus as possible will be in attendance. Vocalists wishing to join this society will be welcomed. Full particulars may be obtained by telephone from the conductor at telephone No. 48921, or on application to the secretary at telephone No. 14711. Former members are requested to kindly return the Choral Society's music scores as soon as possible. These may be left at Messrs. Fletcher Bros.' store at any time.

MUST HOLD HER PLACE WITHIN THE EMPIRE

Issues Before People of Canada in Present Federal Contest Have Vital Bearing Upon Canada's Future Status

That under the regime of the National Liberal and Conservative Party Canada may expect to see her welfare adequately protected and her future safeguarded and promoted by policies which have in the past been instrumental in shaping the destiny of the country within the orbit of the British Empire, was the declaration of Mr. Lindley Cressie, K.C., in an address before the Women's Conservative Club last night at the clubrooms, Campbell Block. The speaker went into the political issues before the people today, pointed to the progress which has been made in the past under the National policy inaugurated following the advent of the Confederation and expressed the view that with the tremendous war debt confronting the Dominion, the imperative need of developing industry along with the development of the great natural resources of the country, the people will be loath to relinquish the fiscal policy under which Canada has prospered, to adopt the fiscal principles of free trade and reciprocity as enunciated by the Liberal Party.

Emphasizing the point that Federal policy was not alone a national but also an international aspect, because Canada, as an integral part of the British Empire, will never forget that her destiny is bound up with the prosperity and greatness of the Empire, Mr. Cressie said that in working out its destiny, Canada, while conducting to her own benefit, must never lose sight of the great partnership of commonwealths of the British Dominions. This very issue, he said, is before the people in the present campaign.

Under the national policy Canada had so progressed that she had become the wonder of other nations. On previous occasions, when questions had arisen that tended to lure the Dominion from the British Empire, Canadians had expressed themselves forcibly. He outlined the Liberal reciprocity proposals in 1911, proposals which had been signally rejected, and stated that again and again the Dominion had adhered to the theory that to build up the country, to increase its population and to provide work for its people, it was to encourage the upbuilding of industry within its own borders.

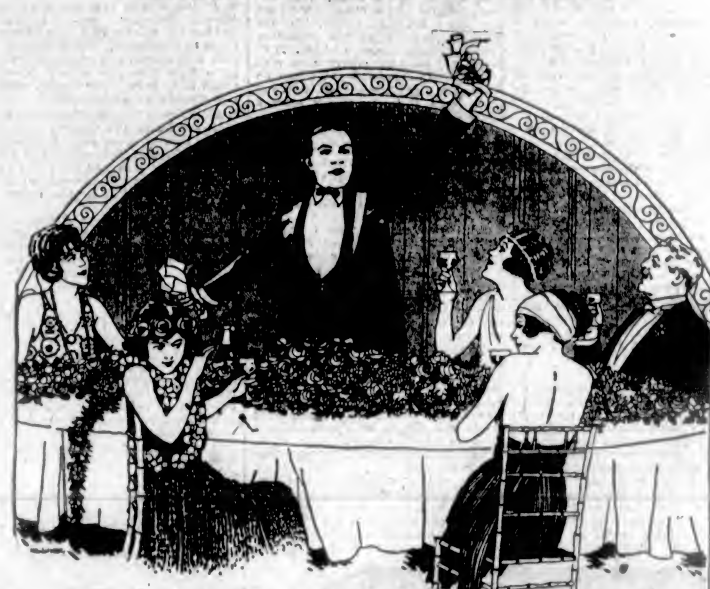

Difference in Aims
The difference between the Liberal and Conservative parties had lain in the aims and destination to which their policies tended. The former had demanded free trade, or as close to it as circumstances would permit, but as time went on their policy was modified to make it approach more nearly to that of the Conservative Party. The argument was heard that there should be free trade, as in England, but there was a vast difference between the two countries. Canada, with her vast undeveloped resources which, unless her industries were protected, would be drawn away to those countries which need them, thereby depriving her of the opportunity to develop her own resources. The Conservative policy was a tariff necessary for the protection of home industries, one that could be changed from time to time as the situation warranted it. Under such a policy the industrial development would be accelerated, employment found for Canadians at home, and other industries built up such as agriculture, for which an industrial population afforded a ready market. It was doubtful, even if Canada did tear down her tariff wall, that lower prices would result, for the United States is consistently high tariff and would, undoubtedly, maintain that principle.

The present tariff, Mr. Cressie pointed out, is not an excessive one, amounting to an average of 15 per cent on all goods brought in and about 25 per cent on dutiable goods, compared with 24.75 per cent under the Liberal regime. With the exception of Great Britain, Canada today enjoyed the lowest tariff of any country in the world. In view of the existing exchange situation it should be Canada's policy to produce more for sale abroad and purchase less from the United States, and yet it was proposed by the Liberals to lower the tariff and buy still more from the States, thereby still further depreciating the value of the Canadian dollar.

Referring to the Farmer's Party, Mr. Cressie expressed the opinion that in the main its strength is derived from those not born under the British flag and to whom it is not a vital question that Canada should prosper as a part of the great Empire. That party stood for free trade, notwithstanding the necessity of raising revenue to meet her burdens. Under such a policy, Mr. Cressie held, Canada would not be able to raise enough revenue to pay her debts.

"Let us stick to the old and tried policies. In these unsettled times it is not the part of wisdom to try experiments. What we want is a co-operation with other portions of the Empire as Britishers and cement the bonds that bind us," said Mr. Cressie.

A hearty vote of thanks to Mr. Cressie was proposed by Mrs. R. F. Green and seconded by Mrs. Harvey, and unanimously approved by the large attendance of ladies present. The congratulations of members was also voiced at the recent elevation of Mr. R. F. Green to the Senate, Mrs. Roberts, president of the club, presided.

STANDARDS IN MUSIC

Wm. Maxwell, vice-president of the Edison Phonograph Co., in a recent contribution to The New York Globe asked the question, "Is America a musical nation?" That question might also be put up to our Canadian people, the conditions prevailing on both sides of the line being about the same.

"It seems to me," wrote Mr. Maxwell, "that a nation without a foundation of folk-songs is handicapped in becoming a musical nation. We lack folk-songs chiefly because they are the musical expression of a class consciousness and resignation to fate."

"In America, with the exception of the negro, people for the most part are continually looking to the future with eyes of ambition, and as a consequence have not developed what might in a broad sense be called vocational music."

"However, during the past five years we have laid a different kind of foundation for an interest in music, and, needless to say, a people that is interested in music will develop musical appreciation. Music is like literature in that the more you have of it the higher your standards become."

Interest in music on this continent at the present time appears chiefly to be centered in what music will do for you. During the war, when thousands of wives, mothers and sweethearts were enduring the most trying suspense, music was found to be a palliative; and behind the battle line itself, music was probably the greatest aid in welfare work.

"Nearly all of us are beginning to be interested in our reactions to music. Unfortunately, a form of musical quickening seems to be springing up, and some people are ascribing to music powers that it does not possess. This is something to be discouraged, because the real benefits of music are so numerous and widespread that no unfounded claim need be made. Quite apart from the therapeutic value of music, which it may have as a competent physician should attempt to determine, music can, in turn, be a solace and an inspiration."

LONDON, Eng., Oct. 14.—The Rev. Dr. John Monro Gibson, for many years minister of St. John's Wood Presbyterian Church, died last night. Dr. Gibson was born in Scotland in 1831. He received his theological education at Knox College, Toronto, where he was awarded double first class honors. His appointment as minister was to Erskine Church, Montreal, as colleague to the Rev. Dr. William Taylor. Returning to England in 1880, he became Moderator of the Presbyterian Church.

"Where the fault lies," said the speaker, "is that we fail to lay sufficient emphasis on the need for development, and thereby are unable to carry out the Sunday school programme in the right order. Let us realize where we are, and let the church be a part of the solution."

Some of the organs in the Old Land and Collegiate Churches of Old Land date back several centuries. For example, the first mention of an organ in Christ's College Chapel, Cambridge, appears in the college accounts of 1510. Nothing, however, is known concerning this and a similar organ or their subsequent fate.

The evolution of the present instrument in Christ's College Chapel dates back to 1705, when a new organ was supplied by Thomas Kneller, a Puritanist of Trinity College, and rebuilt by a Father Smith. This organ ceased in use until 1785.

About fifty years of disrepair followed. The organ was again rebuilt and enlarged, continuing in use until 1903, when it was again rebuilt and further enlarged.

This organ stands in a recessed gallery on the north side of the chapel. Its case is the one built in 1705, almost untouched.
